

EXACTLY THE RIGHT CORSET FOR EVERY WOMAN

is to be found in our advertisement. The woman who wears the best in style and is most attractive, and who wears the season's best corsets, for such women.

Henderson Corsets

EVERY Henderson corset is most carefully made to meet the individual needs of the individual woman. The corsets are shown in both back and front views, and have many exclusive features in style and construction. The side stays used in Henderson corsets are double and are made of the highest grade non-stretch fabric, which springs steel.

The bones are double and made of the same excellent material as the side stays, only lighter weight. In the front the corset is reinforced with the latest, which prevents the protrusion of the flesh or the clothing.

These are only a few of the many features that make Henderson corsets so desirable, and as we have a complete stock of various models, embracing all the new spring styles, we are sure we can meet your figure demands.

WOULD YOU CONDEMN YOUR CHILD TO BE A DYSPEPTIC FOR LIFE? OF COURSE NOT!

And yet—that is what many parents are doing when they neglect the care of the child's teeth.

Decayed baby teeth mean improperly chewed foods, which will weaken the stomach of the growing child.

A good stomach is even more important to the growing child than to the grown person.

Therefore if you value your child's future health, take care of the "baby" teeth.

NEW COVENANT FOR LEAGUE IS BEFORE ENVOYS

Amendments Made To Meet Criticisms of Public Men in U. S.

THIRTY-ONE STATES NAMED AS PARTIES TO AGREEMENT

Mexico Not In List But Can Gain Admission At Late Date.

Washington, April 23.—The revision of the covenant of the league of nations is being presented at Paris today to the peace conference in plenary session, was made public last night by the state department. Its essential features, including important amendments designed to meet criticisms in the use of the original draft, already had been disclosed through an official summary issued two weeks ago when the revision was completed.

Attached to the text, however, is the hitherto unpublished "annex" referred to in the covenant in which are named the 31 states, including the self-governing British dominions, which are to be the original members of the league of nations, and 12 states to be invited to accede to the covenant. The original members are all the nations which declared war on Germany, and in addition the new states of Czechoslovakia and Poland. Those invited to become members by acceding to the covenant are the three Scandinavian countries, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Spain and Persia and the American republics of Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Paraguay, Salvador and Venezuela.

Mexico was not represented in the conference of neutrals at Paris and, as was expected, does not appear in the list. Provision is made in the covenant, however, for the admission of any fully self-governing country which will give required guarantees, upon a two-thirds vote of the assembly, composed of representative of the member nations.

As in the original document, the covenant provides that the league shall act through an assembly in which each state shall have one vote and not more than three delegates, and a council comprising for the present one representative of each of the five great powers and each of the other powers to be selected from time to time by the assembly. Members of each class represented on the council may be increased by unanimous consent of the council and majority of the assembly. Publication of the text discloses that the official summary quoted verbatim the new article recognizing the Monroe doctrine. It provides that nothing in the covenant shall be deemed to affect the validity of international agreements such as treaties of arbitration or regional understandings like the Monroe doctrine, for securing maintenance of peace.

This was the amendment for which President Wilson made a successful fight at the same time the Japanese delegation to the peace conference sought vainly to have a race equality provision inserted in the covenant. It was suggested in each of the United States senate and provided for the withdrawal of a member.

BRITISH FLIERS READY TO START

Rigid Tests of Engines Produce Results Which are Satisfactory To Daring Pilots.

St. Johns, N. F., April 23.—The hopes of Harry G. Hawker and Frederick P. Raynham, British fliers, rivals for a successful airplane flight over the Atlantic are centered on engines which they have been testing continuously for more than eight hours. With favorable conditions, for which the aviators are waiting, the trip will require a minimum of 20 hours, a margin of five hours additional is allowed by each in their patrol, and water supplies. Faith in the ability of their motor to stand up under this almost unprecedented test is based on the fact that engines built from the same specifications has had bench trials exceeding 30 hours.

Hawker's 350-horsepower Eagle engine had an original bench trial of over two and three hours, which was considered sufficient because engines of similar type had propelled planes from London to Constantinople and to India with stops, but with proof of reliability over long stretches. In flight the motors maintain of sustained operation was 7 1/2 hours.

Raynham's Falcon model motor, similar to engines used in scout machines for long periods of reconnaissance and pursuit work over the lines in France was accepted after a two-hour bench demonstration. It is rated at 255-horsepower. The Martinsyde motor, tried in flight for seven hours and found that it worked smoothly and announced that he was ready to bring it here for the long flight over seas. Except for short warmups it has had only 50 minutes run since Raynham's arrival.

Notwithstanding the brevity of these tests both pilots profess absolute faith in their motor plants, the detection of any part of which would spell failure for the venture and imperil the lives of the fliers. Hawker, in particular, expresses confidence that his motor with a few improvements, which he has installed will serve him to a successful air crossing of the Atlantic. Raynham, although reticent, is equally confident.

PLANT MORE VEGETABLES TO TAKE FRUIT'S PLACE

Washington, April 23.—A plea to plant more vegetables to make up for the loss of fruit due to the recent cold wave was sent today to the Victory gardeners of the country by the national war garden commission.

The statement also called attention to the opening tomorrow in the more northern states for the Victory garden drive and stated reports to the commissioner showed more acreage is being cultivated by communities and business concerns for employees this year than ever before.

400 SOLDIERS JOIN REGULAR U. S. ARMY

Washington, April 23.—The seven-day recruiting campaign which has just ended has enlisted 400 Camp Sherman soldiers for the regular army, according to an announcement made here today. Though the campaign will not be continued recruiting officers will be maintained here indefinitely.

It is thought probable that the employment of civilians in the quartermaster department will be authorized shortly as a result of a conference Major A. N. Bessah, camp quartermaster, had in Chicago with army officers relative to the plan.

RATIONING PLAN IN RUSSIA MEETS WITH OPPOSITION

Anti-Bolshevik Government and French Press Condemn It.

LITTLE HEADWAY IS MADE IN FEEDING PETROGRAD

Neutral Food Commissioner Has Not Talked With Nickola Lenine.

Paris, April 23.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen's plan for the neutrals to supply food to Moscow and Petrograd is apparently making little headway as yet he has been unable to communicate with Nikola Lenine, the Bolshevik premier of Russia and the opposition to the plan among the Russians here as representatives of the anti-Bolshevik governments and in the French press is becoming more pronounced.

The Russian representatives insist that armies which are now making an excellent showing against the Bolsheviks should not be handicapped by movements which tend to encourage the Lenin troops. The Bolsheviks, however, reported willingness to recognize foreign debts and to grant concessions in consideration of receiving food supplies and ceasing hostilities taken by the Russians here as a distinct admission of weakness.

They urge that plans for supplying food for Bolshevik Russia would only prolong the ascendancy of Lenin and his colleagues and prevent a speedy restoration of normal conditions.

The defeat of the Bolsheviks at Kiev and the Archangel section on the Baltic and along the two branches of the Trans Siberian railroad is regarded by Nik Tschalikovsky, head of the provisional government of northern Russia, and his associates as a president of transportation facilities are failing the Bolsheviks and that they are not able to shift their armies quick enough to meet attacks.

Governor Cox announced several days ago that he would oppose such bills in the future and indicated that he would veto any further bills passed by the legislature providing for municipal courts.

The Newark bill, which was introduced by Representative John S. Graham at the request of the Licking county bar association and other local people.

WILHELM FOR TRIAL FOR CRIMES

Request Will Be Part of Treaty If Proposed Articles Are Adopted By Planning Session of Peace Conference—Army Officers Also Will Be Tried.

Washington, April 23.—New articles proposed for insertion in the peace treaty, to be considered at the plenary session of the peace conference, were announced today by the state department.

The allied and associated powers will request Holland to surrender the former emperor for trial.

Persons accused of violation of the laws and customs of war, according to a second proposed article will be brought before military tribunals and found guilty sentenced to the punishments laid down by military law.

LEAGUE IS URGED

The attention of the world is centered just now on the Adriatic seaport of Fiume. The Italian peace delegates have quit the conference because their demands that this city be given to Italy have not been granted. President Wilson has stated positively that he will not yield to their demands. One of two developments is expected soon it is thought. Either the present delegates will return with new instructions from their government or

BIG WEEK AHEAD OF PEACE ENVOYS

Final Action Is Expected On League of Nations Covenant.

There also is a feeling prevalent in Paris that the treaty of peace will be ready for presentation to the German delegates by Saturday of this week, before which time it is hoped the Italian situation may resolve itself.

As to the peace treaty, the most important matter still to be settled is the problem of composing the Japanese and Chinese claims to Kiao Chao and the Shan Tung peninsula. A decision on this subject has been expected for several days and it may be announced today. Matters dealing with the disposition of German prisoners of war and the future status of the Kiel canal and questions relative to Luxembourg also are pending, but it is believed they are in a fair way toward an adjustment.

Conditions in Italy are being watched with some concern, but very little news relative to the state of public opinion there and the activities of Premier Orlando and his colleagues in the government has arrived since Saturday. It was reported that a council of ministers was to be held on Saturday by the premier, but what action was taken at the meeting has not been made public. Senators and deputies from all the Italian parties except the official socialist party, held a meeting Sunday and a special committee to draft a resolution of confidence in the government for submission to the parliament.

At the public meeting of the peace conference to be held today the revised draft of the covenant of the league of nations will be presented. This draft, made public in this country Sunday night, differs in some important respects from that brought to America by President Wilson last February. It is probable that Japan will make an effort to secure an amendment to the covenant which will grant these Japanese claims for recognition of racial equality.

Germany, with the exception of Bavaria and Silesia, seems to be much quieter than it has been for several weeks. A general strike is reported in the coal and iron district of Upper Silesia and the iron industry is seriously affected.

The Russian Bolsheviks have suffered severe reverses on the eastern front and Admiral Kolchak's forces seem to be making gains which may develop most favorably in the near future. Troops which have been fighting against the allied forces in Northern Russia are reported to have been withdrawn and sent to the eastern front where they are thought to be more threatening. Dispatches from Paris indicate that the plan to provision the larger cities in Bolshevik Russia is making little progress and that opposition to it is growing in anti-Bolshevik circles.

KNOW PASSWORD BUT NOT RAGTIME

Hun Spy Held Up By Sentry Fell Down When Asked to Sing "Blues."

By Captain Carl Helm, 350th Field Artillery Regiment.

Now that the armistice is on and a treaty of peace is about to be signed it is possible to relate some of the inside stories of the war.

The average civilian would be astounded to know the extent to which the German spies carried on their work on the western battlefields.

While fighting in the Metz sector, the 350th Field Artillery Regiment had the very novel though extremely trying experience of having its lines of communication cut by spies every night of the thirty consecutive days it was in action on the front.

All artillery firing was done at night because of the greater demoralizing effect night firing is known to have on the enemy, and also because it was so easy for Heinie to locate the guns during night firing.

The eyes of the artillery are up with the infantry, fire being directed by telephonic or telegraphic communication. Cut these lines of communication and the artillery is blind and without proper fire direction.

Whatever else may be said of the German as a fighter the 350th Field Artillery Regiment will testify to the fact that he is the most daring of spies.

Spies filtered through the lines ever where at night. They cut the lines of communication. Sometimes the same line would be cut two or three times showing the extensive plans made to insure the cutting of a certain line, preceding an attack. Spies even came into possession of the nightly change countersign or password and thereby lies the most comical incident in the history of the 350th.

Private George Cook, the shimmering symbol cracker of the 350th's great Black Devil Band was on guard duty. He knew the Colonel was wild with anger because it was impossible to stop the nightly invasion of spies and the resulting cutting of the lines of communication. Cook felt it was near death to the sentry who permitted the wrong man to pass his post.

Private Cook saw a figure approaching in the darkness and he challenged. In answer to his "Who goes there?" Cook received the answer, "An officer of the command." Upon advancing his disturber Cook beheld a stately figure in the uniform of an American Major of Artillery. In answer to Cook's demand for the password he received the correct answer in perfect American Army English. The password on that particular night happened to be Chicago.

Although Private Cook saw before him an American Major and had just received the correct countersign he hesitated. In answer to his "Who goes there?" # NEW CATTLE BARN AT FAIR GROUNDS

Fair Directors Visit the Grounds and Determine Upon Improvements This Summer.

A regular meeting was held and an inspection of the buildings on the fair grounds was made by the directors of the Licking County Agricultural Society, Saturday. It was decided to build a new cattle barn and demolish the old pony barn. The floral hall building, known as the old theatre, will also be overhauled and a new roof place over it. The permit-list was revised in each department, the most radical change being in the stock department. Twenty-five per cent additional premiums will be paid over that of last year on all money winners entered from Licking county. This will make the premiums of Licking county compare favorably with the State. Stockmen are behind this year's exhibition and promise some of the best entries ever seen at a county fair.

Members of the Licking County Poultry association were present and have promised to give an even better show than was held last year, when almost every available foot of space was taken. The board decided to purchase 50 double exhibition coops and 10 single coops. The fair board will also provide a caretaker and feed the birds so that exhibitors will not be bothered in any way. Members of the association will lend every assistance in making the poultry show the largest and best ever seen in the county.

OIL LEASE CASE ASSIGNED FOR TRIAL

The case of Midland Oil and Gas company vs. Hamilton et al. has been assigned for trial on the merits June 2. The oil company drilled an oil well on property owned by the four defendants. The lease secured by the company being made with but two of the defendants. A suit was brought to enjoin the defendants from interfering with operations under the lease, and the company asks the court to decree that the two defendants who did execute the lease are bound by the lease by reason of having had actual notice of its execution. The attorneys in the case are McDonald & Stinchcomb for plaintiffs and John J. Martin for the defendants.

SOMERSET YOUTH WEARS WAR CROSS

Is Honored By French For Part In Great War—Was Wounded Three Times.

On the day following his graduation from the Somerset high school last spring, 19-year-old Russell Parrett enlisted in the marines. Last week he was in Columbus visiting his uncle, Harry Parrett, 55 South Edie street, wearing the croix de guerre and carrying scars of three wounds and the remembrance of shell shock and mustard gas, all acquired during eight months' service overseas, says the Columbus dispatch. He has returned to the Brooklyn naval hospital for an operation as he still has an open wound in his back received from a "whiz bang" on October 31.

Pieces of the shell wounded him in the lung and shoulder also and "shocked" him besides. When he fell back into a shell hole, his clothes became saturated with mustard gas, but he was at once sent to a hospital, where he soon recovered from the shock, burns and two of his wounds. The third kept him in the hospital until he was sent home in March.

Private Parrett, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Parrett of Somerset, fought with the Fifth marine brigade. His regiment won nine citations, the largest number given any regiment in the A. E. F., and suffered heavy casualties. Over 800 croix de guerre and 270 distinguished service crosses were awarded its members.

Private Parrett hopes to be out of the hospital by August 1 and to enter Ohio State university to study law. He comes from a family of fighters. His grandfather, William Parrett of Thornville, was a member of the 62d O. A. I. during the Civil War, and his father and uncle served in the Spanish-American war. Two of Private Parrett's cousins, Ralph and Robert Edison, 504 Oakwood avenue, are in the quartermaster corps, and an uncle, Sergeant Major Charles Parrett, is at present with the quartermaster corps. Another uncle is in the navy.

Annual Social and Dinner Is Held at Club House, Honoring Members Back From Army.

The annual social of the Buckeye Lake Yacht club held Sunday was a success in every particular and the 100 or more guests present were highly entertained. It was a welcome and homecoming for the 24 members of the club who were in the service of their country, six of whom were from Licking county, they being Lieut. Fred C. Palmer, still abroad, Major H. J. Buell of Washington, D. C., Charles E. Allen, Henry Fink and P. W. Jones.

After the guests had been greeted by the reception committee and an hour whiled away in renewing old acquaintances all were seated at the banquet tables and a fine menu was served. After dinner talks followed and several hours were happily spent in this manner. Guests of the club who also spoke were Thomas H. Owen, ex-commander of the Detroit Yacht club, Harry Austin, ex-commander of the Boat Club Yachtsmen of Detroit, Charles Lynch of Detroit, former commander of the Buckeye Lake Yacht club and Chris Smith of Algona, Mich., designer of the fastest motor boats which ever plowed the water, including Miss Minneapolis, which has a record of 70 miles per hour and he is now at work on a new boat to be entered for the Harmsworth trophy in England and which it is expected will make at least 100 miles per hour.

Geneva, Switzerland, is named seat of the league, where the treaty general will maintain headquarters and where the council and assembly will meet at stated intervals, less some other place of meeting designated.

Section one of the "Annex" says: Original members of the league: Signatories of the treaty of peace: United States of America, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, British Empire, Canada, Australia, South Africa, New South Wales, India, China, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Ecuador, France, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Roumania, Serbia, Siam, Uruguay.

States invited to accede to the covenant: Argentina Republic, Chile, Colombia, Denmark, Netherlands, Norway, Paraguay, Persia, Salvador, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Venezuela.

NO COMMENT AT CAPITAL.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 28.—Publication by the state department today of the text of the covenant of the League of Nations gave the text of the document to the American people several hours in advance of its presentation to the people hours in advance of its presentation to the peace conference in plenary session at Paris.

The substance of the covenant, including material changes designed particularly to meet criticisms in the United States had been disclosed two weeks ago through an official summary, but members of the senate, officials and other students of the nation's foreign relations had withheld final judgment pending careful analysis of the complete text.

Apparently these observers found that the official summary had given a fairly comprehensive outline of the document especially of the amendments. The new article specifically exempting mandatory commitments from the Monroe doctrine, had been quoted verbatim. The summary also had outlined amendments exempting national domestic relations from the jurisdiction of the league, providing for withdrawal of member nations upon two years' notice, leaving it to member states to decide what armed force, if any, they will contribute to any force which the league may determine is necessary to enforce its findings, providing that member states shall be given only to states willing to accept them, and stating definitely that armament reduction programs become effective only when approved by the states concerned.

Most of the congressional leaders were out of the city today, including Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, who will be the next chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, and Senator Johnson of Nebraska, retiring chairman. Two coded corrections upon the text of the annex to the covenant were received today by the state department. In the list of original members the name of New South Wales was eliminated and that of New Zealand added. The word "not" was inserted at the beginning of the last sentence to correct an obvious error in transmission.

DOLLY SISTERS

The Black Devil Band.

It was a saving among the colored troops of the 35th Field Artillery that the "finest" was done at night and that the "shooting" was done in the day time. Chaps of course was day time attraction, or as Lieutenant J. Tim Brymn calls it "Africa gold." However, the famous band leader never allowed the camping instincts of his musicians to interfere with band practice, and early and late, in fair and foul weather, he kept them at it, and as a result the Black Devil Band now ranks as the world's finest colored band.

This wonderful organization of black soldiers will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre Wednesday afternoon and evening at which time

The regiment broke all speed records in firing the French 75s, attaining a speed of 34 shells a minute, as against the best previous record made by any other artillery unit in any army in France, which was 20 shells per minute. ## NEWARK'S CLEAN-UP

The down town section of Newark presented an improved appearance Sunday because of the Saturday night street cleaning Director of Service Wilson can make the job easier for himself and his assistants if he will place trash receptacles about the business section and encourage their use.

It does not take long to clean up a town, and it does not take long to get it in disorder again. One of the worst features of the modern community center, is the habit of littering up the streets with waste paper.

The people are buying large quantities of candy, fruit, chewing gum, and various eatables. Most of these things are sold in bags and little paper containers. A large part of this stuff is eaten on the street. And three quarters of the people immediately throw the wrapper away. People throw away torn newspaper fragments, handbills are scattered, and waste comes from many other sources. A town cleaned up one day may be all in disorder again by the next night.

The larger cities and towns keep cleaners who spend their time picking up the needless litter which people leave.

It seems folly that the people should spend their hard earned money hiring workers to pick up the needless waste that they leave about the street.

This condition can only be improved by a campaign of popular education. The Advocate would like to begin right here and now. It asks every citizen of Newark and every visitor to consider these streets as your home, and to be ashamed to litter them up as you would be to leave dirty waste kicking around your parlor.

No matter how attractively maintained the roadways and the private grounds may be, if there are a lot of waste paper blowing around the town, there is going to be an air of neglect and dirt. It will injure the good name of the community, and tend to discourage people from improving their own property as they naturally would at this time of year.

Don't throw waste paper on the streets. Take it home and sell it to the rag man or burn it. Quit throwing papers or trash into the streets.

In this connection it should be remembered that next Monday, May 5, will be clean up day in Newark. Mayor Atherton asks everybody to take a hand. Clean yards, cellars, alleys and place the trash at the curbstone to be carried to the dumping grounds.

There is a suggestion that those decontaminating annexed to the American school system.

SURPLUS LABOR.

Labor conditions for the past two years have been very unusual. Previously there has commonly been a supply of surplus labor, except perhaps on the farms. But factories usually had plenty of applicants around their employment offices. It gave an employer of factory labor a comfortable feeling to know that there was a surplus of unemployed labor on which he could draw at any time.

A recent writer in the Atlantic Monthly asserts that up to two years ago, the average amount of unemployed labor in this country was 1,000,000. If that is a fair statement, it shows a dangerous condition. Of course many of the so-called "unemployed" were men who wouldn't keep a steady job if it was offered them. Still the number of "Situations Wanted" ads in the newspapers formerly used greatly to exceed the ads of "Help Wanted." This has always suggested that formerly there was a surplus of labor.

A principal reason for lack of such surplus now, is the cutting off of immigration since the war began. But with widespread Bolshevism in Europe, this country will look its immigrants over closely. It doesn't pay to take in anyone who does not give evidence that he will become a good working citizen and help support the state. Of that kind, this country needs all it can get.

Where a surplus of labor exists, it is a sign of maladjustment in the industries. The employer ought not to expect to find a reserve of idle work seekers who can be drawn upon any time. There is really work enough for everyone, if the job can only find the man. It needs a highly organized system to bring the man and the job together. Without that, there will always be a dangerous fringe of idleness.

After getting the Germans thoroughly supplied with food, it may occur to some one that it would be a good idea to send over a little to our starving allies the Poles and Czech-Slovaks, who have helped the cause to the limit of their ability.

Some merchants say they have been able to stay in business for 30 or 40 years without advertising. Yes, and some others who advertised have been able to retire on their incomes in 15 and 20 years.

The college theory of physical culture is to put a thousand students on bleached seats where they holler and drink pop and watch 18 gladiators get physical training in baseball.

One of the cheerful signs of spring in Newark is the baseball from the kid game coming through the kitchen window.

GERMANY'S POTASH.

(New York Times.)
When Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska heard that this country was to receive potash in part payment for food exported to Germany, he sent a protest to the German government, that the need for fertilizer be prevented. He has now been told in a reply from Bernard M. Baruch, formerly chairman of the war industries board, and now an adviser for the peace commission, that the American industry can be defended against imports from Germany only by an act of congress.

There have been conflicting reports about potash crossing the Atlantic again. A few months ago farmers were assured by a Washington department that a supply would soon be shipped from the mines in Alsace, which are now under French control. Afterward it was said that these must be delayed until June and some days later, that France would need and use the entire Alsace output for the coming two or three years. In January Herr Schmidt, a director of the German potash syndicate, was talking about an approaching shipment of 50,000 tons. The Frankfurter Zeitung in February said that the armistice commission had provided for delivery of this quantity to America, but had done so without consulting the syndicate. It assumed that the prices would be much higher than those paid before the war, when the potash fertilizer consumed here was brought from Germany. Then the quantity of potash declined to only 5,000 tons. Commenting upon the arrival of several food ships at Hamburg, two weeks ago, a German paper said it had been decided that they should carry the potash on their return voyage. But on the 10th instant, Associated Press dispatches from Berlin reported that the ships "had to leave in ballast because in all Germany there could not be collected enough freight to load them."

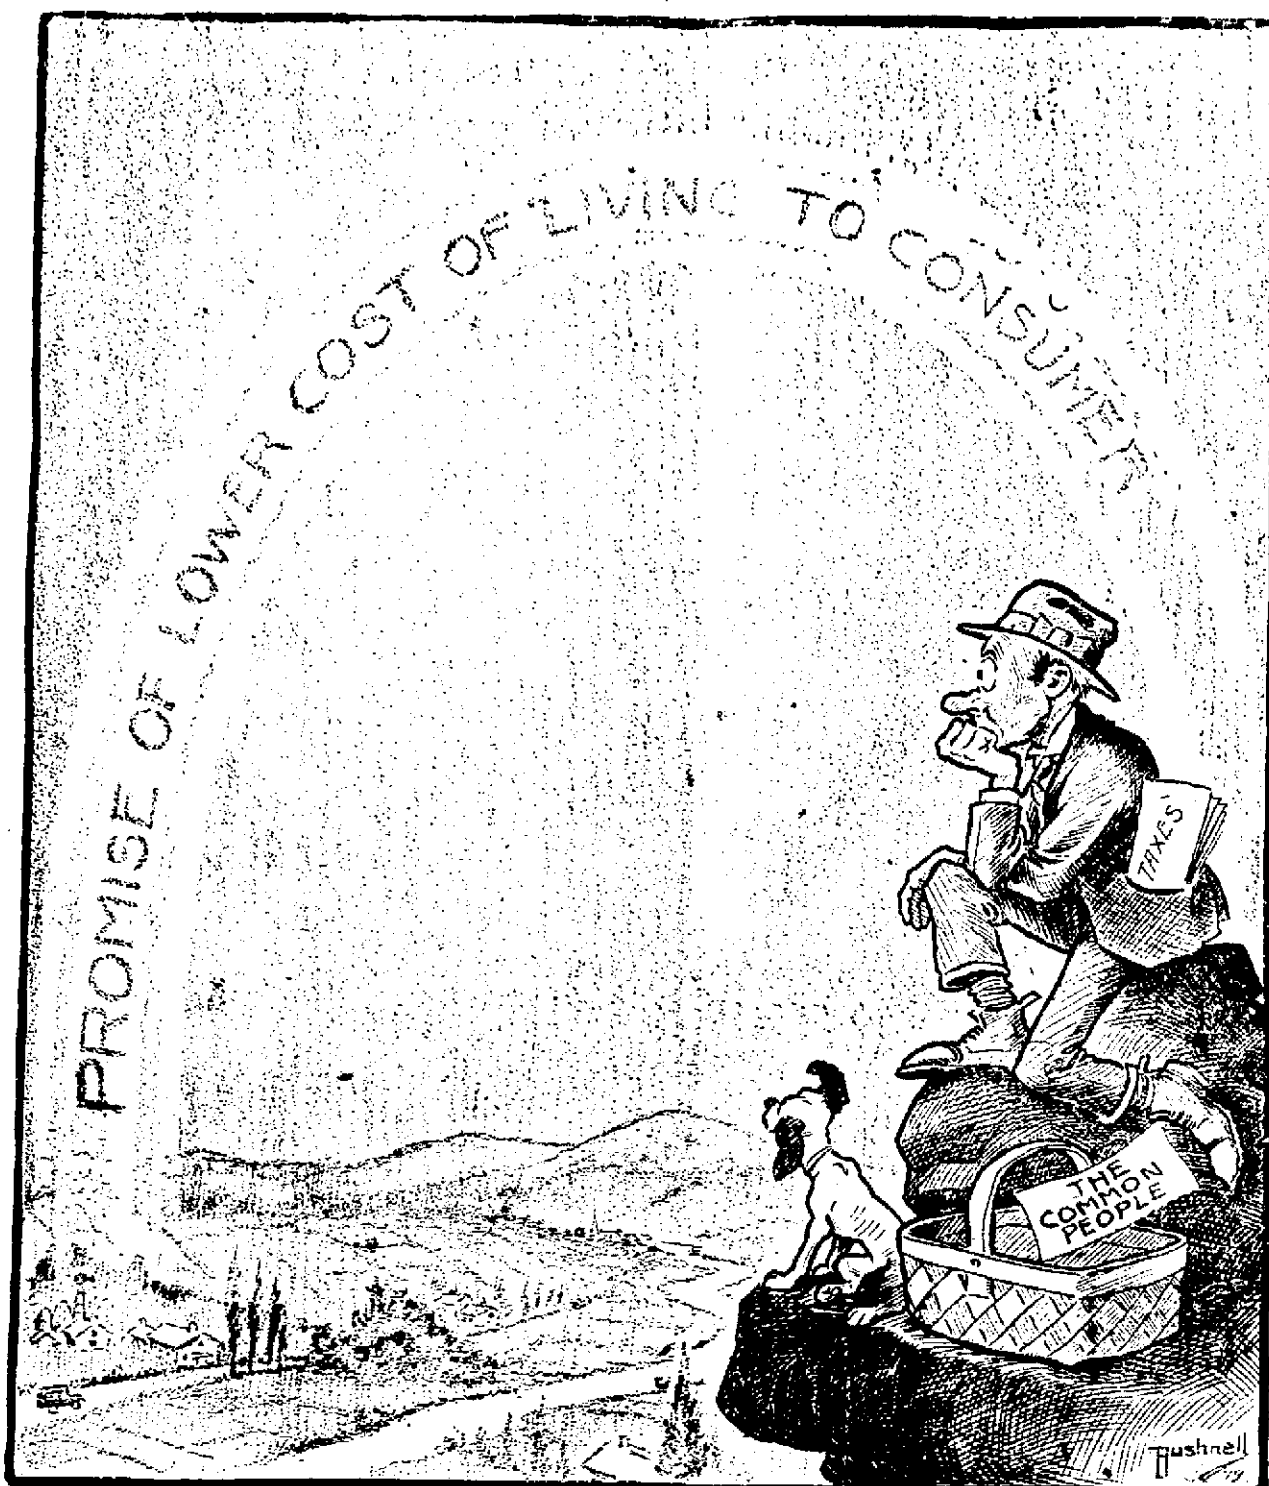

American producers are not yet menaced by destructive competition. A trade journal recently published the assertion of persons connected with the industry that 100,000 tons produced in Nebraska and California were in storage here because of the demand from farmers had been disappointing. There may be considerable amounts before congress, in session, will be asked to decide whether pay for food shall be taken in this form the domestic industry be guarded by new legislation.

MAKING THE NATION STRONG.

(Ohio State Journal.)
The more Liberty bonds taken the stronger the government is. Armies do not strengthen a government like a large bonded indebtedness to its own people. A man who owns a bond is a better citizen than the man who doesn't, for this reason: he has a personal interest in the country in addition to a patriotic interest. We make no money distinction. The reason is a purely patriotic one. This nation is a patchwork of different races and languages, because added millions have become immediately interested in it. This is by no means a low motive, for it represents a sacrifice too. It is a substantial bond of country that is not distinguished by the fact that it is also a good investment, but the fact that it is a good investment is what makes it a safe investment.

Although the other features may be perfect, a woman is up to not her good looks from her eyes.

THE RAINBOW CHASER

ENCOURAGEMENT.

Henry Clews, the New York financier, gives twenty reasons for encouragement. Here they are:

1. Relief of business from pressure of war conditions.
2. Signing of peace treaty only a matter of settling final details.
3. End of war loans, and release of money hereafter for legitimate business.
4. Federal taxes have reached the maximum and must hereafter decline.
5. Consequent revival of long deferred enterprise and improvements.
6. Removal of many war restrictions, permitting return of foreign and domestic trade to normal conditions.
7. Failure of government price fixing theories, and return of market freedom.
8. Wages have been generally advanced and the crisis induced by high prices is less acute.
9. Prospect of better understanding between labor and capital.
10. A season of great agricultural prosperity is anticipated, meaning good business for the west and south which in turn should stimulate railroad traffic in both sections.
11. Building is sure to be much more active owing to urgent demands for housing and office room which have often put rents to excessive rates.
12. Railroads will be large buyers of rails, locomotives and cars to offset war wear and recent economies.
13. A special session of congress is expected in latter half of May. The new house promises to be more conservative than its radical predecessor; and there is a brighter outlook for sane and sounder legislation.
14. Public opinion is becoming less hostile to public service operations, so that, despite a bad situation in local tractions, the chance of securing fair compensation to offset higher wages and other expenses is much improved.
15. Foreign trade is expanding satisfactorily. March exports being $695,000,000, or $22,000,000 more than a year ago. Imports reached $757,000,000, or $25,000,000 in excess of the same period of 1918.

The outlook for export trade is decidedly encouraging, since we shall soon have to ship large quantities of cotton, copper, oil, steel and other products to satisfy the imperative necessities of devastated Europe. South America and Asia will also be liberal buyers in our markets.

Now that the black list and the abolished with all countries except Germany and Bolshevik Russia, expansion will be more rapid and upon more natural lines; always remembering however that the buying power of the winning nations has been gravely impaired, and that our exports will chiefly depend upon our ability and willingness to give credit.

Commodities, wages and credit have undergone a high degree of inflation, while securities have almost entirely escaped. This disparity will somehow have to be adjusted, either by deflation at one end or inflation at the other; or possibly through both until a more normal balance is reached. Inflation of securities was of course prevented by monetary restrictions, also by the extraordinary uncertainties attending all profits whether of railroads, industries or public utilities. War profits were never really reflected in market values. The outlook however now is that the railroads will do better than many of the industries will make larger earnings, and that even public utilities have a better chance of fair play.

Ownership for government ownership is at a lower ebb than at any time since its birth. Through costly experience, also by deterioration in service of railroads, steamships, telegraphs and telephones, the country has gained lessons of inefficiency in public ownership. Henry Clay has been the losses this incurred, they have probably saved us from far more serious consequences had these properties been permanently taken over by the government.

Thoughts on Railroad Travel.
If the railroad situation results in another revision of fare upward, instead of thinking twice about traveling most people won't think about it at all.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

We suppose people will continue to must and will economize for some years to come before it can fill the vacuum of ordinary necessities, of which this country is the only nation possessing a surplus. Herein lies much of our present great good fortune.

Spirit of the Press

Hats Off:
A Cleveland soldier writes to The Plain Dealer to complain that men no longer salute the American flag as it passes them in the street. When the "Star Spangled Banner" is played, he says, they uncover but when the Star Spangled is borne past them in parade they forget the mark of homage due it as the emblem of liberties. The point is worth making. The war brought to Americans a new appreciation of what the old flag of the Republic stood for. And it would be a very comment indeed if, after the fighting has ended, the stars and stripes has won new triumphs, carrying its message of freedom to new millions who scarcely knew before that existed. Americans then, soldiers should salute neglect these little marks of respect due the emblem of their beloved country.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

France's Future.
It will give great satisfaction if France secures a diplomatic triumph in securing the recognition of her claims, and if she looks upon a tremendous racket and a great show of dissatisfaction over the work of the peace conference as a will object to this recognition. France stood the brunt of the Hun's onslaught, and she is entitled to the biggest share in dividing the spoils. Still, it will be pleasant to see reflected in the claims of the Peace League and the new constabulations of French politicians. Let them continue the brilliant stage management to the end, and then, when they have gained their objects, let us have a handsome recognition that France will come out of the war the chief gainer and with a future more firmly assured than any time since 1871.—Philadelphia Record.

HOWARD E. MADSEN,
Sergeant, Co. D, 151st Infantry.
Sergeant Madsen was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action at Bois-de-Consenvoye, France, October 22, 1918. When the platoon which he was commanding was held up by an enemy machine gun nest, Sergeant Madsen, taking an awful of grenades, advanced alone over ground swept by machine gun fire, put the machine gun out of action, routed the enemy and permitted the platoon to advance without casualties. His mother, Mrs. Mary V. Madsen, lives in Baltimore, Md.

A human institution, has been violent. Some of the critics have been careless of their facts. If they had followed up the worst cases of severe sentences, they would have found that the offenders were in spite of those sentences often let off lightly. One offender served but a short time in the "disciplinary barracks," went to France as a private, and rose to be a captain. "Never during the entire period of the men under lock," Gen. Wood says, "stating a human note. That is a principle that guides most of the officers of the Army, even the West Pointers, who are supposed to be such martinet. There have been harsh trials and long sentences, but in the mass the number was small, and in almost every instance the sentences have been reduced.—New York Times.

COURT DISSOLVES
TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

In the case of Susan F. Thurston vs.
Carrie M. Thurston, the plaintiff here-before secured a temporary injunction against the defendant from proceeding in an action in Putnam county in the probate court restraining from realizing on a judgment obtained for alimony in the court of this county.

Susan Thurston claimed that the judgment obtained in this county is void, and that the probate court of Putnam county was without jurisdiction to proceed and dispose of the real estate. The common pleas court dissolved the temporary injunction and dismissed plaintiff's petition.

Mrs. Henry S. Fleek received two letters from her son, Captain J. S.
Fleek, who is with the 158th field artillery brigade, and the boys were enthusiastic about the early return of the brigade. Last week the family had a telegram from him saying the brigade was returning with the 32nd division.
His letters written April 12 and 13,
said they expected to sail about the first of May.

37TH VETERANS ARE GUESTS AT DINNER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kuster in Commodore street was beautifully arranged last night, when they entertained in honor of the boys of the 112th ammunition train of the 37th division,
which recently returned from France.
The emblem of the 37th, the red background with the white circle, was featured and festoons of red, white and blue were used. The numerals 37th were a prominent place and the table was centered with a large wheel in red, white and blue, denoting the wagoners. Two Kuster boys, John and Karl, served with the 112th, and eight other Newark members of the outfit were honor guests.

Dinner was served and the Auditorium orchestra furnished music. Twenty-six guests spent a delightful evening.

CAN'T USE BUILDING FOR SLAUGHTER HOUSE

In the case of Laura B. Cooper vs.
Dale Gilmore, the court found in favor of Laura B. Cooper. Plaintiff, upon filing of the petition some days since, secured a temporary injunction against Gilmore from the further construction of a building located on Gilmore's property, which was to be used for the purpose of a slaughter house. The court granted a permanent injunction against the use of the building for slaughter house purposes. Notice of appeal was given and bond fixed at $20
to enable the plaintiff to take the case to the court of appeals.

COLD WAVE REACHES ENGLAND; HEAVY SNOW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, April 28.—Following a period of perfect spring weather, one of the worst winters in sometime raged over the British Isles last night, covering the country with from six to six inches of snow. Telegraph and telephone lines suffered severely and communication is cut off in many directions from this city. Communication with the continent is interrupted. Marine reports show that a few small ships were wrecked.

DIE ON TRACTION CAR

Dayton, April 28.—Charles Scott, 73, of Miami, Fla., died suddenly on an interurban traction car, while the car was passing through West Alexandria, Preble county, from Richmond, Ind., to Dayton. He had buried his wife in Hagerstown, Ind., recently and was on his way to this city to take a train for Miami, Fla., when a heart attack claimed him.

The old fashioned wife that used to walk out in the gate and kiss her husband goodbye in the morning now has a married daughter that hasn't even awake when her husband goes to work.
It begins to look like we'd have peace
an' a league o' nations before th' war time elevator operators learn to stop even with th' floor.

FANS READY FOR ZBYSZKO MATCH

Big Athletic Program at Auditorium Tuesday Evening Expects to Draw a Large Crowd.

The big athletic tournament promises to pack the Auditorium theatre, Tuesday evening. The world's champion heavyweight wrestler, Zbyszko, will be the center of attraction, for he has agreed to throw any five wrestlers whom the promoter might name. His deft was accepted and he will try conclusions with Vance Wallace, Bill Gallagher and Head Bowser of this city. Frank Miller of Wheeling, W. Va., and Mike Yokel, middleweight wrestler of the west. The big champ may find that he has some contract on hand, at that, before he finishes anyway the fans are predicting that he will have to travel the entire route.

Another pleasing match is that arranged between Cora Livingston, world's champion woman wrestler, May Lewis of Charleston, W. Va., said to be one of the best women athletes in the country. She weighs 140 pounds, and will endeavor to carry back the championship with her to West Virginia.

Leslie Fishbaugh, champion 135-pound
amateur, has been matched to meet George Pappas, professional Greek wrestler, and whose record on the mat has been the admiration of not only his countrymen but those who have followed his career. Fishbaugh will have to put forth every effort to win the decision over the champion.

The entire program will be the best that has ever been attempted in Newark and Jack Curley, fight promoter,
comes to Newark as the manager of Zbyszko,
and will make a curtain-speech. He has stated the big championship heavyweight fights. For a time he was the manager of Jess Willard.

Columbus and other adjacent cities endeavored to secure the big champion but it was left to Newark to secure the coveted honors. The big event will be well worth witnessing and good reservations can still be secured at the Bowser gym in North Fourth street, or at the box office at the Auditorium theatre.

The promoter of the event, Bowser says, cost him $1500, and as a consequence there will be a slight advance in prices and the free-list will be entirely suspended for that night.

GETS HEAVY WEIGHT TO HELP BEAT ZBYSZKO

Paul Bowser has lined up a heavyweight wrestler, a man who is only a few pounds lighter than Zbyszko, to take the place of Mike Yokel, in the five man team which endeavor to beat the big Pole at the Auditorium Tuesday night.

The identity of the big fellow will not be known until just before the mat steps on the mat. He will appear in public however, tonight at the Bowser gym, when he will give a public workout with Bowser.

The Newark man believes the addition of the heavy man will make the event more interesting to the fans.

ZBYSZKO AGAIN MEETS "STRANGLER" LEWIS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, April 28.—Ed ("Strangler")
Lewis of Kentucky, and Waldek Zbysz-ko, the Pole, said today they were in the prime of condition for their finishing wrestling match, catch-as-catch-can style, at the Coliseum tonight. The winner, it was said, will be matched with Sergeant Earl Coddock, who is still in the army, for the world's heavyweight title.

The men have met several times within the last two years without a decision, but recently in New York, Zbyszko defeated Lewis in a one-fall match.

The agreement provides that there is a fall inside of two hours, two out of three will decide the title. If there is no fall in two hours, the man winning one fall is to be declared
the victor.

Martin Delaney, physical director of the Chicago Athletic association, has been selected as referee of the bout.
